Athletics-Go Eagles!

Congratulations to the St. Mary softball team on their Regional win!

The Lady Eagles made history by winning the first Softball Regional Championship in school history. They defeated East Jordan 15-5 and Holton High School 5-4 at the Regional softball tournament at Onkama High School last Saturday. Next up is quarterfinals on Tuesday, June 13 at Alma College. The Lady Eagles will face Mount Pleasant Sacred Heart at 4p.m.

MHSAA Districts - All tickets - $9.00

Tickets are available online at GoFan. One ticket is good for all games.

The “last day of school” for Mrs. Pasch has a different meaning this year as she heads off to retirement. Over the years, she has touched the lives of many students with her joy, kindness, and compassion. Her colleagues and the students at St. Mary School will miss her. May she be filled with many graces & blessings from God as she begins this exciting new chapter; enjoying more time with family and friends. We wish you well and a happy retirement!

Do you have your St. Mary Yard Sign Out?
